You always made us laugh. When we were together you always had precious stories to tell everyone about the good old days of camping fishing your rain dance too.

She was one of the most precious fun neighbors that we have ever known. Arlene was our neighbor in the new apts on Hanover Ave when i was pregnant with my daughter in 1992. We would leave our doors opened so we could visit each other when we wanted to. We loved her. (She use to sneak to smoke her cigarettes so family did not know she smoked :-)) SHHHH I did not just tell you that! You touched our lives for sure! with much love, Rob & Tammy
