“ Dear Old Friend,
We will always cherish our times together. Though you're no longer here with us, the memories will live on forever. We will always remember the guy playing air guitar and pole dancing at our summer yard parties. We will remember the fun times at your sports bar (in the basement). We remember your delicious lasagna at Christmastime. You were one of a kind. They broke the mold after you were made.
We pray you are out of pain and free again. We'll look for that bright star in the sky.
We love you, RIP old buddy!

“ Marie and I will always remember Richard with fondness. He liked to bluster and he always had a raw joke or comment. And whatever else you thought at the time - you knew he had a big heart - and that like many of us - he found it hard to say I Love you. But he showed his love - he was generous to his friends and only wanted to laugh and have you join in. Marie and I will always remember Chip and Richard's yearly Halloween parties and the many other times we were welcomed into the home in Wood-Ridge. And later into Chip and Richard's PA house.

Richard's interest were many - music collections, sports and sports memorabilia, his and Chip's bar library and home bar. I remember how he loved to find a new rum or a new cigar and how it was impossible to get hot sauce hot enough for him to blink. He always reminded me of Santa Clause including because he always had a twinkle in his eye and a mischievous grin. The pain he had to deal with for so long clearly impacted him in a bad way. And it was sad to see that. Marie and I are grateful for the many positive memories and we wish him Godspeed.

“ The first thing I think of is Uncle Richard's room of baseball bats. I like to think that he's already shaken hands with Mantle and Ruth. When we were little, You always had these huge coloring books waiting for us at your house and we always roasted marshmallows. They're really nice memories. And My parents had some wild times at your parties.

“ One of my fondest memories is attending the Halloween parties. You never knew what to expect but Richard made sure everyone always fun. The food, drinks and laughter was plentiful. And of course the costumes were always unpredictable! Rest In Peace Richard you will always be in my prayers.

“ Oh Rich, Rich Rich! What can we say except to really know the real Rich was to love him. We had some really great times the 4 of us & im Going to try to remember all the good times instead of remembering you in Emergency Rooms, Hospitals & Assisted Living. Not everyone understood your sense of humor but we sure did. Thank god you are not suffering anymore. We love & will miss you our friend. You gave Ed his nickname AAD, Almost a Dr & we talk about that & laugh about it. We have so many little things around both our houses that are memories of you & our friendship. Edney was the son u never had & he loved playing that roll. Blink twice Rich if u can hear me. Lol. I can go on & on. Till we all meet again RIP our forever friend. Love you. Jill & Ed

“ I will always have the memories of my childhood with you being Santa on Christmas Eve and your basement in New Jersey, as kids thinking how cool it was having a pool table and all the baseball memorabilia. We pray for you and are at peace with knowing you are not in pain anymore.
