“ I always new Allen as "Bucky" since high school and maybe even junior high school. He was such a beautiful and caring friend who everyone loved. He fell in love with "Sissy" his wife while we were in school and there was never anyone else. I am very very sad to hear of his passing but I feel so fortunate to have known him. There are some people you meet along the way that you never forget and "Bucky" was one of them. My deepest condolences go out to his wife "Sissy" and his son, Todd.
