

Barbara K. Margolis

February 7, 2020

Barbara K. “Bobbe” Margolis, 92, of Country Meadows, Allentown, formerly of 420 N. 27th St., Allentown, died February 7, 2020. She was the widow of Attorney Robert Margolis. Born in Allentown, she was the daughter of the late David and Mollie (Strum) Kins. She was a 1945 graduate of the Moravian Seminary for Girls, Bethlehem, and attended Goucher College, Baltimore, MD. She was a member of Congregation Keneseth Israel, Allentown, and active in the K.I. Sisterhood. She was a co-founder of the LARC Shop, formerly located on Front St., Allentown. She was active with Planned Parenthood and the former Elephant’s Trunk, Emmaus.

Survivors: sons, Dr. James K. Margolis and his wife Dr. Meredith R. Margolis of Macungie, Andrew K. Margolis of Whitehaven; grandchildren, Michael D. Margolis, Rebecca L. Margolis and Daniel R. Margolis. She was predeceased by her granddaughter, Mollie Sara Margolis, her brother, Richard J. Kins and her sister, Gladys Youngerman.

A Graveside service will be held at a later date at Keneseth Israel Cemetery, Allentown. Arrangements by J.S. Burkholder Funeral Home, Allentown.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Barbara’s memory to the Mollie Margolis Memorial Fund c/o National Tay-Sachs and Allied Diseases, 2001 Beacon St., Suite 204, Boston, MA 02135.

Tribute Wall

CL

“Bobbe was a kind and gracious woman. She was also a devoted wife and loving mother. She put her actions where her heart was. In addition to loving her two biological sons, she loved and was loved by a number of unofficially adopted sons. We worshipped at her never empty Tastykake drawer. Perhaps my favorite memory of Bobbe was her remarkable sense of humor and her ability to spontaneously generate a contagious laugh appropriately and at her own jokes. Certainly, she is entertaining the angels which most assuredly surround her doubled over in laughter. “That’s easy for you to say.””

Charles Layfield - February 10, 2020 at 08:09 AM