“ I will miss my cousin Becky. I always looked up to her growing up. She loved books about Jesus, God and the Bible. She had beautiful jewelry and I loved the way she talked and laughed. She loved her nephews very much and prayed for them daily. She was very generous and supportive to those who were in a hard place. ❤️ I will miss her.

“ My dad was with her at Whitehall manor. I saw her daily and talked often. I bought her that sugar free salad dressing that made her day, such a small thing. She will be missed. Eleni Katz

Randy and I went to visit Becky around Thanksgiving. She loved hearing all the stories about her old neighborhood. It made her laugh. We are sorry for your loss of your sister and sister-in-law, Paul and Diane. Becky was a great neighbor. She would talk to us when she was outside. She always took care of her property.
