“Gee, you are still so loved and will be in our hearts and memories forever. Last evening, I went downstairs to be with my dad, because I knew he was so very sad about losing his bestest buddy. I opened the garage door and he was sitting there in tears. I gave him a big hug and just sat with him. This is what he said to me " I was sitting here looking at the picnic table & chairs on the deck. That is where Gee would sit every Tuesday night when he came to visit me, after mom passed." You are at peace and pain free now. I am certain my mom pushed her way to the front of the line to welcome you home. Please tell my mom, I miss her every day. Until we all meet again. Always in our hearts.

Love, Jody

“We had so many wonderful memories with you, Barbara and Mary. We had the honor of being Lisa's godparents. We had such good times playing "Nertz". You'll be missed. Say hello to Mary.
Your friend, Bob
