

Beulah Elaine Georgantas

April 4, 2026

Beulah Elaine Georgantas, 77, of Abilene, Texas, formerly of Lower Macungie Twp., passed away on April 4, 2026. She was the wife of the late Arthur Joseph Georgantas. Beulah was a woman of deep faith, sharp wit, and an even bigger heart. A native of New England who spent much of her life between Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, she eventually brought her slight Boston accent and "northern slang" down to Abilene, Texas, where she spent her final years surrounded by her daughter Kristen's family. While she excelled in her career as a bank secretary and later a friendly face at Weis, Beulah's true calling was her family. She was the quintessential stay-at-home mom to her four children before becoming the world's best "YiaYia." Whether she was sending surprise boxes of sweets to her grandkids or crocheting blankets that the family would playfully "fight" over, her love was tangible. A devout Catholic from birth, Beulah's life was a testament to her devotion to the Lord. She leaves behind a legacy of laughter, witty stories, and a collection of cherished family recipes that will be cooked—and enjoyed—for generations to come.

Survivors: Children: Gabrielle wife of Christopher Dollak and their children: Sophia, Logan, Jackson and Matthew, Kristen wife of Steven Todd and their children: Sadie-Mae, Ruby and Talon, Nicholas Georgantas and his wife Kerry and their children: Nora, Luke and Owen and Cynthia wife of Mark Paskey. She was preceded in death by Siblings: Paul, James, Patricia and Karen.
