“ I've known Bonnie for many years as we attended church activities and helped plan singles events together. She was a joy to be around—pleasant and kind and strong in her faith. I am so sorry to hear of her passing—she'll be missed by everyone who knew her.

“ She was my baby sister, born when I was only 12, who grew up to be an awesome Christian lady who I adored and respected. Oh my Bonnie, you'll be so missed. You are with our Mother now and I can picture the beautiful smiles on both of your faces. My precious husband Dick, of 61 years is there greeting you with open arms as well. Hug them for me sweet baby sister of mine. Through tears I say goodbye until we meet again.
