

Brandan Michael Herman

December 5, 2018

Brandan -ubba- Michael Herman, 18, of Allentown died Wednesday, December 5, 2018 with his family by his side in Sacred Heart Hospital, Allentown. Born in Bethlehem, he was the beloved son of Christopher J. and Debra M. (Fronheiser) Herman. Homeschooled, Brandan was a senior and would have graduated in June. He was an ardent fan of the heavy metal rock bands, Slipknot and Mushroomhead and the rapper, Eminem. Along with his mom and sister, he was a follower of wrestling and enjoyed dinners with his dad of hot dogs, pizza with extra cheese and cheese burgers with lots of ketchup. He loved cookie dough ice cream, but it had to be the Turkey Hill brand. He treasured time spent with his pappy and nanna and the family trip to the lake.

Survivors: Parents with whom he resided; sister, Breanna N. -eetle- Herman at home; maternal pappy and nanna, Raymond and Doris (Smith) Moyer of Allentown, puppies, Tippy, Ogie, Duncan and Seymore. He was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Susanna M. (Butterworth) Fronheiser.

Funeral Service 2:00PM Tuesday in the J.S. Burkholder Funeral Home, 16th & Hamilton Sts., Allentown. Call 1 to 2:00PM Tuesday in the funeral home. Interment is private.
