

Bruce Charles Sterner

August 15, 2021

Bruce Charles Sterner, 70, of Allentown, passed away August 15, 2021 at home. He was the companion of Jeanette J. Rudolph. Bruce worked as a salesman for Sheds USA, Portsmouth, NH, was a salesman for Bennett Auto Sales, and worked part-time at the Adult Playtime Boutique. He also worked several Allentown voting polls in Lehigh County. Born in Allentown, he was the son of the late Robert Frank Sterner and the late Esther Lou (Shankweiler) Sterner.

Survivors: Companion: Jeanette J. Rudolph with whom he resided in Allentown, Daughter: Michelle L. Sterner of Oak Ridge, TN, Son: Joseph R. Sterner of Florida, Sisters: Margaret A. Sterner of Allentown and Mary wife of Michael Kolesnik of Hellertown, Brothers: Robert W. Sterner of Springtown, PA and Raymond D. Sterner and wife Linda of Allentown, Three Grandchildren and his former Wife: Linda Sterner of Tennessee. He was preceded in death by his brother, Charles, and sister, Arlene Sterner. Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

RG

“ Family of my cousin Bruce(AKA) Butch....I just found out of Butch's passing....Bruce you were a fun loving guy! I know my Angel husband Michael has been with God for 13 years. Mike and my son AJ also has been an Angel for 8 years. Michael and AJ will now have another Angel in Heaven with them....Rest In Peace....We will meet again cousinI love you

Rosie Greenawalt

Rosie Greenawalt - September 07, 2021 at 07:02 PM

RG

Sending love and prayers to all my very distant family ❤️

Rosie Greenawalt - September 08, 2021 at 04:00 PM

JR

“ You will be missed by me and Ladybug our dog. Thank you for 15+ years for your companionship and support. You were always joking around and having fun. I will carry out your wishes.

Rest in peace. Your earth health issues are now gone.

Jan Rudolph - August 23, 2021 at 09:08 AM