“ I was saddened to read of Carl's passing in the April 21 edition of the Lancaster, PA newspaper. Carl and I served together as division V.P.s in the 1980s, he in Lehigh and I in Susquehanna (Williamsport) and Lancaster. During our many staff meetings with Lee Nonemaker, Carl was always thoughtful, well reasoned and very well spoken. He and I didn't always agree but I always respected his judgement and considered him a valued friend and colleague.

I saw Carl only once since I retired in 1995, and that was at a restaurant in Bonita Springs, FL where Carl, Mary Catherine, Lee and Jean Nonemaker and my Joyce and I enjoyed a pleasant dinner together. .

May your love for Carl sustain you in this time of sorrow.
