Grandma loved making her sofas out of old cigarette boxes and paper. She loved her arts and crafts. She hated being called well Coco. So we stopped that lol. She loved talking the little ones on rides with her walker. Dancing (with Nati especially).

“ Took me a while to find the words to say, This is still so unreal to me. Mi Reina I wasn't ready for you to leave. But I'm glad your no longer suffering and in pain. Im honored to be your granddaughter & to have shared a birthday with you every year. I will continue to celebrate for the both of us. All the memories you left behind I will cherish forever! I miss you so much 😞 it breaks my heart knowing I will never be able to hug or kiss you again. Even more that I can't be there to lay you to rest. But I know you know my love for you is endless.. Mi veija Te quiero mucho hoy, Manana y Siempre ❤️🕊️

“ I had the pleasure of meeting this beautiful human a couple of times while we were having family time at the handball park. She was so sweet to me and was talking to my granddaughter. You could tell she was absolutely adored by her family. I will always remember her in this way beautiful painless surrounded by her family and nothing but love. Please watch over us all now and be free. I'm so sorry for this enormous loss to her family but her was to beautiful for earth any longer god needed her more he has plans for her. Rest in eternal peace queen. Sincerely Christina Dillon and family

“ We're do I begin? Grandma I love you forever and always. I'll hold all our memories close to my heart. I'm so sorry we can't be there to see you off but I'm so glad I got to see you do much more. Thank you for our talks, for taking care of me, for loving me unconditionally even when I did stupid things, for loving my kids, for all our times good and bad. Thank you for showing me how to be a strong woman like you. "I'm 81 and your 35." Love you mi señorita. Till we see each other again.

*Love always and forever,
Bobbie*
