Carol served as a mentor and coach for home dialysis for numerous families and nurses in training.

Carol was a member of Concordia Lutheran Church, Macungie, PA with her second husband of 28 years, John Lisy Daniel. They traveled extensively, wintering in St. Petersburg, FL, and together were active participants in local, regional, and national church service.

Carol will be remembered as a charming, graceful person and loving matriarch. She was known for her vibrant personality and her ability to start a conversation with anyone. She lovingly raised her three children, participating in all their events and activities despite her husband's chronic illness. She adored her grandchildren (and they her) and had a unique bond with each of them.

During a long illness, Carol was able to remain at home thanks to an amazing team of caregivers, LVHN Hospice personnel, and a very special pastor. They tirelessly supported her and the entire family, and we are forever grateful to them.

“How many of us can say we were blessed to have an amazing mother-in-law? When my mother died, Carol took me to a grief session, comforted me and held my hand. She was an extraordinary mother, grandmother, friend, spouse, daughter, sibling and mother-in-law. Carol left many legacies and the one I'm so privileged to have is her beautiful daughter Susan who I am married to and in so many ways is like her Mom. May Carol's memory be eternal. John
