“ I remember meeting Carol at her sisters' home (my sister in law). She seemed very pleasant and easy to talk to. May she rest in peace. Prayers to the family

Carol and Richard are my family. Carol was a sweetie. She always took care of everyone else and she waited til every one is taken of first. She always made sure a hot meal was ready for her family when her husband got home from work. Carol you are loved and missed. REST IN PEACE. LOVE YOU

May she RIP. She was very friendly and sweet towards me I remember visiting her a couple of times with her deceased daughter Sandy and her deceased son-in-law Negro (my cousin). My prayers to her family specially to my cousin Mario who at his 23 yrs of age he has lost his father, mother, stepfather, grandfather and grandmother (who became his parents when he lost his mom). God bless you all. Receive my sincere sympathy
