“ I enter this memory rather late, and I apologize. I enjoyed and adored Chris and Dave in many classes at First Presbyterian. I am so thankful for getting that time with both of them and getting to know both of them. Until recently, I had not realized that she had passed as I have missed many fall services due to personal family events throughout the fall that limited my attendance. I know that she is at peace. I believe Chris is watching over all of her loved ones, and will be there to greet them when their time comes.

With heart felt love, Linda S.
