

Daniel K. Slegal

October 27, 2023

Daniel K. Slegal, 81, of South Whitehall Twp., formerly of Lake Hauto, passed away on October 27, 2023 in the Health Care Center at Luther Crest Retirement Community, South Whitehall Twp. He was the husband of Judith A. (Renaud) Slegal. They were married for 58 years. Daniel worked in the college textbook publishing field, most recently as a Director of Sales Training until retiring in 2008. Prior to that, he was a health and physical education teacher in Camp Hill and Chambersburg, PA. He was a 1959 graduate of State College High School and graduated from Penn State University in 1963. Born in Bellefonte, PA, he was the son of the late Robert Allison Slegal and Mary Louise (Yearick) Slegal.

Dan was an avid Penn State fan who never missed attending or watching a football game and could often be spotted on his daily walks at Lake Hauto. A Lake Hauto member since 1979, he enjoyed his days at Oakwood Beach with his fellow Beach Nuts. He was an active member of St. John's United Church of Christ, and served as a deacon on the consistory. He was also a member of the State College Elks. His greatest pleasure though, came from spending time with his family, either cooking a gourmet meal, boating on the lake, or relaxing at Crescent Beach.

*Judy,
My deepest condolences for your loss. It is hard to sum up Dan in a few words because for me one of the things I most loved and admired about him was how he was able to find a way to get to the point of what he wanted to say in a succinct, straight forward yet caring and compassionate way - something not easy to do when your job involves selling books or managing those verbose individuals like myself for whom that virtue is anything but second nature. Which is not to say Dan had a problem with words. Anyone who heard him speak to a large group or enjoyed listening to some of his funny stories over a couple of beers knows better. So, to keep it as short as I can, he was simply the best!*
