

Dion J. Aguila

December 31, 2025

Dion J. Aguila, 53, of Allentown, passed away at home on December 31, 2025. Born in Lehigh County, he was the son of Bonnie Colon (Duch) and Jose Rodriguez.

Dion worked as a truck driver and laborer throughout his life. He faced many challenges along the way, but throughout those struggles, he continued to value and cherish his family. In his quieter moments, Dion found comfort in the outdoors and enjoyed fishing and camping, which gave him a sense of peace and reflection. He took great pleasure in the written word, spending many hours reading, writing and appreciating poetry. Dion will be remembered for his perseverance and the meaningful moments he shared with those closest to him.

He is survived by his son, Derek Aguila and his wife, Tionne; his daughters, Kayliana Aguila, Alexis Aguila, Kiana and her husband, Harry Ryan, and Janitsa and her husband, Mario Moncada; as well as his seven grandchildren.

He is also survived by his siblings: Carmen Oquendo (Aguila), Vanessa Centeno-Rivera, Elliott Centeno, Sotero Ortiz, Emily Rodriguez, and Miguel Rodriquez.

Dion was preceded in death by his fiancée, Lindsey Saadioui.

A viewing and service will be held on Friday, January 9, 2026, from 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. at J.S. Burkholder Funeral Home, 1601 W. Hamilton Street, Allentown.

“ Rest easy brother you are extremely missed, I wish I could have helped you more. I have so many memories, most really good. Tons of laughs, fishing, hiking, music, working on cars and all the time I got to spend with your kids, especially Derek and Kayliana... and even doing inspections. Love you brother, please watch over us.
