

Dominick E. Fornaro

January 16, 2020

Dominick Edward Fornaro 31, of Allentown PA, died January 16, 2020 at Lehigh Valley Hospital. He was the husband of Kadey Dusseau. He was born on March 23, 1988 in Livingston NJ and was the son of Charles and Sharon Fornaro. Dominick worked as a tile setter and belonged to the Tile, Marble and Terrazzo local union #7 from New York. He was a 2006 graduate of Northern Lehigh High School where he played soccer and football. Dominick loved watching football and was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan but he mostly loved spending time with family and friends. In addition to his wife and parents, surviving are his three children, Payten Fornaro, Ellie Fornaro and Camden Fornaro and two step daughters, Audrina Santana and Abriella Santana. Also surviving is his sister, Jennifer Fornaro and his four brothers, Charles Fornaro Jr, Dr. Jody Tversky, Jeffrey Tversky and wife Rebecca and Mark Fornaro. Dominick came from a large family and had many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews as well as many wonderful friends. He was the life of the party, had a heart of gold and was greatly loved. " if a man was measured by his friends, Dominick was a giant"

Services will be held on January 23, 2020 at St. Nicholas Roman Catholic Church in Walnutport, PA. Calling hours are 9:30-11:00 followed by Mass at 11:00.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to his family.

“ Dominick, I have no way to process the shock and loss I feel right now. You are my baby brother and like a son to me. I remember you following me everywhere I went when you were little and taking you to football. Taking you fishing, or for ice cream. Taking you for rides in the Porsche or the Jeep. You've grown into the man I was hoping for you to be. Now at your happiest, you were taken from us all. I just want one more chance to hang out with you and to be proud of the man you have become. I know you were in pain, and I know that is gone now. Sleep easy my baby brother. I love you

“ Dom: I'm sorry we never spent a lot of time together growing up. No fault of our own but I still cared. I remember the first time I held you, all I wanted to do was play with you and cuddle you. I saw you two more times after that. You are a hero in my eyes. Love you

“ I represented Dominick for child custody, and I instantly liked him the very first time we met. It was immediately clear how much he loved his children, and that he was committed to being a good father. It turned out that we had many mutual friends- both being from Slatington, this isn't a huge surprise. I would run into him from time to time, or comment on one of his Facebook posts, and I was happy to see how well he was doing for himself and his family. He was funny, a hard-worker, likable, and friendly. His death does not make sense to me, and I am sure everyone else feels the same. I will be praying for him, his family, and his friends. If I can help you at all, please reach out to me. <3

I'm so very sorry Aunt Sharon. He's not in any pain anymore and he's hanging out with Grandpa Fornaro doing what he does best.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the lord. May god bless you. So sorry for your entire family. God must have wanted you. I never met you but I am so sorry to hear of this sad news. Love to all the Fornaro family and my prayers that you will be comforted in some way knowing your baby is with the lord.

Dom, its the end of August 2021, and Im still in shock. I miss you more than you could know. I want little brother back, and I never can. I wanna talk to you and do stuff with you and your family. I am so incredibly proud of your children, especially Payten. When I look at my own son, there is so much of you I see. I miss the giggles when you were little. The high pitched screeches when you were having fun. The constant energy you had. Most of all, I miss your smile.

Dom. Almost a year to the day I posted some words. I will do that again. I will not let you be forgotten. I dont want to forget. It would be easy to say make the pain go away. But then if that happens, I fear you go away with it. So I keep it alive in me, so you stay alive with me. I miss you brother. Im getting married again. I have a step son and a newborn son. Your an uncle again twice over and brother in-law. I wish you could be with us again. I love you bro.
