“ *Dad,
Happy Heavenly Fathers Day. Your presence is surely missed but your love will always be all around us. Love you*

“ Pop pop ,

*I didn't know you all that well but i just wanted to say I'm glad you're not in pain anymore. Just like how my dad was in pain. But it is really a blessing for that to happen and it was nice seeing you those few times at the Harlan house and a few times at the nursing center.
But even though I didn't know you all that much I do love you and I know you're in a better place.*

Love , Andrew

“ Poppop. I miss you so much. It feels surreal that I'm never gonna get a phone call from you again. Over the past two years, I feel as though I've gotten to know you a lot more. It's amazing the trials that get thrown at us in our lives - you had many! But you still managed to remain strong. You took great pride in hard work. You were loyal to your friends and family. In spite of everything, you chose to laugh. You chose to be kind.

I will miss our visits. I will miss you gobbling down anything and everything I put in front of you. I will miss your smooches and your bear hugs. I will miss your sense of humour and your ability to always be honest. You had so much love to give in your time here. I am glad I got to be on the receiving end of it. Every phone call you would end with, "Bye bye now." So bye bye pop. I'm so happy you can finally be at peace. I love you.

“ Dad,

I miss you so much. I am glad that you aren't in any pain anymore. I want to thank you for being a Dad to me taking the place for someone else that wasn't there. I remember growing up how strong I thought you were and such a hard worker. I remember going to Bushkill park on many occasions and feeding the ducks. I remember going fishing with you as a kid and being so happy to be hanging with my Dad. I know Life wasn't always easy for you for many reasons but we always had each others back throughout time. I loved dancing with you at your wedding and felt on top of the world dancing with my Dad. As much as I will miss you there are so many special people who have gone before you waiting with open arms to reunite once again. One sweet day Dad I to will be reunited with you and everyone else once again. Until then fly high and watch over us for you will forever remain in my heart.

Love, your daughter, Cindy
