“ I was sooo sorry to read about Dorines death! We shared many of memories at work and after work. I would throw paper clips at her when her not to energic boss would make her get the work instead of her getting up and going to get it herself! Dorine would look back at me and try to hold bk laughing. I could go on and on about all the times we laughed together. I will NEVER forget her delicious coconut cake she made! She would make me that cake and in exchange I would give her my kiffles. Even though I got the better deal. We didn't get together enough. Time goes so fast and all the should haves are all gone. I will truly miss one of my best friends!
