“ I have been friends with Edel's son Erald (Earl) since high school. His mom has always been nice to me. I remember the first time I visited his house it was summer and she immediately offered me a glass of lemonade (limonade in German).

Edel always had a sweet personality. I have fond memories of a vacation to Germany in the mid 1980s with Earl and his entire family, along with a large tour group (Earl's dad, Fred, was a travel agent). It was one of the more memorable vacations, first time I traveled overseas. Edel and Fred really made this vacation fun.

My sympathies to you Earl, Judy, Eric, and Elyse, and the rest of family.

“ I worked with Edel (as we called her) for about 12 years until she retired. When I was first transferred to the Lehigh St. location, I was a little afraid of her. However, I soon realized behind her thick accent she had a "big heart"! Once there was a small fire in the supermarket and we all had to evacuate the building. It was a beautiful day outside and Edel kept us laughing the whole time! She was a hoot and fit in well with the rest of the crew. Yes--Edel was just "one of the Lehigh St. Girls"! I remember she always spoke kindly of her family. Edel was especially proud when her son or daughter would visit her at work. Sometimes her daughter Monique would shop with Edel after her shift. You could see they both were having fun! Edel was also attractive with a nice head of hair and a big smile. She was always a little bit strict but very fair! I have many great memories of working with Edelgard and loved hearing about the times she worked in her father's health food store. I'd like to extend my sincere condolences to the family for your loss. What a blessed life she lived! Rest in peace Edel and godspeed ahead. You've earned it.
