

Edmund (Mike) Ramage Helffrich

June 3, 2024

Edmund (Mike) Ramage Helffrich, 96, of South Whitehall Twp., passed away on June 3, 2024. He was the husband of the late Elaine Mary (Best) Helffrich. Born in Boston, MA, he was the son of the late Cyril C. and Ruth E. (Ramage) Helffrich. He attended Mercersburg Academy and Harvard University. Edmund retired as a inventory control specialist at Rodale in Emmaus. Prior, he was in sales at Harold Stephens and HJ Heinz. Edmund served in the PA National guard for 25 years, retiring as Command Sergeant Major.

His passion in life was classical music. Edmund was a master cellist and he played with other exceptional musicians from the area. He taught music at the Moravian Conservatory in Bethlehem for many years and was a master woodworker building cellos and colonial style furniture. He also designed his own speaker, "Wallhorn" that accentuates lower notes.

Pre-deceased: brother Peter and daughter Elizabeth. Survivors: Son: Michael Helffrich and wife Marisa of Egypt, Stepsons: George Lewis and wife Karen of Florida, Scott Lewis and wife Cheryl of Allentown and Chris Lewis and wife Michelle of Sellersville; Grandchildren: Toni, Christi, Matthew, Jessica, Meghan, Mia and Sophie, and Great-Grandchildren: Johnna, Eve and Navy.

A Military Graveside Service will be held on Friday June 14, 2024 at 11 A.M. at Green Mount Cemetery in Bath, PA.
