

Eric K. Hemingway

February 6, 2025

Eric K. Hemingway, 51, of Slatington, passed away on February 6, 2025 in the Inpatient Hospice Unit at Lehigh Valley Hospital, 17 th and Chew Sts. Allentown. He was the husband of Christine T. (Tiscio) Hemingway. Eric was a forklift mechanic for Equipment Depot. Born in Allentown, he was the son of Claude and Lana (Held) Hemingway. Eric was a man of passion and dedication, especially when it came to his cars. He spent countless hours in the garage, surrounded by tools and parts, striving to give each vehicle more horsepower. Beyond his love for cars, Eric was a gifted softball player, competing in tournaments and leagues for many years. His lifetime softball friends were like family to him, and they shared countless unforgettable moments on and off the field. Eric cherished teaching his daughter Paige the sport, fostering a strong bond with her and imparting skills that will last a lifetime. A proud member of the Blue Ridge Rod and Gun Club, Eric enjoyed playing darts and participating in tournaments with friends and family. His sharp wit and humor brought joy to everyone around him, and he will be deeply missed by the club. When the sun was out, you could always find Eric cruising on his Harley, creating lasting memories with his childhood friends and his beloved wife Christine. Gavin, Eric's son, will deeply miss wrestling with his dad and the sound of their shared belly laughs. The bond they had was filled with joy, laughter, and cherished moments that will forever be remembered. Eric's love and playful spirit will live on through Gavin, who will carry those memories with him always. Eric's battle with cancer was long and challenging, but he never lost his humor or smile. Even in the face of adversity, he continued to mess with the nurses and hospital staff, lightening the mood with his infectious personality. His resilience and strength were a testament to the kind of man he was—always bringing joy to others, no matter the circumstances. He will be dearly missed, but his spirit and laughter will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
