“ Working with Evelyn, (99), for many years at City Hall was a great pleasure. She was so competent and always put a smile on my face!

“ The way she would light up when my dogs would run down our steps to greet her each morning in her room with us downstairs is still a strong memory. She loved reading to my kids with dogs in between them all. She was a sweet soul. But I also remember her fighting with anyone who wanted to pay for her dinner, whether my father or anyone else. She called it once our shared “Yenser humble stubbornness.” That sweet soul had an inner strength!
