

H. Scott Cawley

August 28, 2023

H. Scott Cawley, 70, of Macungie, passed away on August 28, 2023 in his home. He was the owner of ABE Mobile Locksmith since 1996. Born in Allentown, he was the brother of the late Robert L. Cawley. He was son of the late Harry E. Cawley, Jr. and the late Shirley J. (Kershner) Uhler. He was the step-son of the late Dale E. Uhler and Laenore M. (Yeisley) Cawley. He was a graduate of Parkland High School and a Certified Locksmith.

Scott was kind to all....family, friends and strangers alike. He took pride in what he did and was always willing to help anyone in need. He loved his dogs, his tea and his brother more than anything in the world. He was loyal to all those that knew him and never had a negative word to say about anyone

Survivors: Nephew: Robert K. Cawley and his wife Alissa of New Tripoli,
Niece: Tessa M. Cawley of Philadelphia, Great-Nephew: Quinn Cawley and a Great-Niece: Addison Cawley.

“ I am so sad about Scott's passing. Scott was a unique individual one of a kind. He truly cares about other people and would do anything for anyone. I feel fortunate to have gotten to know him very well this past year and a half. He has been a loyal friend and a best friend. He was a great storyteller and told me his life stories many times. He had many friends and he kept in touch with them over the years his friends meant the world to him. He made friends wherever he went he would talk to everyone and people liked him. He made me laugh many times at myself and at the same time he could laugh at himself. He was appreciative in anything that anyone ever did for him and he always wanted to do something for them in return. Scott was a definition of a true friend. And I feel like a better person for getting to know him and I will never forget him.

“ Scott was my best friend. I owned ABE mobile Locksmiths. Scott walked in nearly 30 years ago with a serious demeanor and a silly hat that I knew was given to him upon graduations for a mail order locksmith course. He said he was looking for work and he was a “Certified “ locksmith. I handed him a couple of locks and told him to rekey them, well about a hour went by for a 15 minute job. I said how you doing and he said good. I laughed but he got them done. This was the beginning of a long friendship. We worked together and he became a good locksmith . Bobby his brother and I talked and he was proud of his brother and how much he took it. He bought the business in 1996 and was very successful, I started out this post saying Scott. I never called him that. His name was and is “Certified “. God bless my friend and his family including his nephew Bobby who he was so proud of. I will miss you and our phone calls,

Scott was part of my Extended Family. He did several lock jobs for me. He was good at what he did and it was a great avenue for him! Thanks to ABE Locksmith, he really liked to be the guy who could fix locks!!

I was just sharing a laugh with him over the phone only a few weeks ago, and here I am reading his obituary. There's not much I miss from years gone by, but I'll be missing Scott for God only knows how long to come...RIP, my brother.
