He worked for several years in a primary care setting in Florida prior to joining Dr. Sachdev in Kansas where he worked at Central Kansas Medical Center. Born in Medellin, Colombia, he was the son of Mildred (McCary) Young of Quincy, Indiana and the late Vernon Young. El Muno will be missed by his wife, family, friends, his fur buddy Gabo, his Jeep, Cuna de Howie and all the Café Gabo drinkers.

I will miss you dearly, my friend. So few walk this earth with such kindness and love for others as you did. In the face of such a selfish, angry world, you remind me not everyone is as such. I will not forget the kindness you showed to me through the days we journeyed together. Rest peacefully in Papa's arms, Howie. One day I'll join you there.

*Dear Millie,
Our Deepest Sympathy to you and the family. We will always remember our meeting up with Howard and you at Red Robin in P.A. When we went out in the parking lot he took a foot stool (he had made) out so you were able to climb into his Jeep.
Such Love he had for his Mother.
Deepest Sympathy

“ I recently had a follow up appt at Dr Sachdevs office for my knee injections and saw Howards picture sitting on the counter. When I remarked about what a great picture it was of him one of the office staff informed me of his passing. I ws shocked and overwhelmed with tears at the news, for Howard had almost always taken care of me at the office for the past 8 yrs except when consult with Dr Sachdev was needed. He was always so warm, compassionate and kind to me and always asking how I was holding up dealing with my husbands illness. He was MORE than just a P.A., he was a friend and confident, I always felt so comfortable with and trusted his knowledge totally when making suggestions as to what was best for my care. His smile was infectious and his mild and calm demeanor always set me at ease no matter what procedure I was about to get. I havent been able to get him off my mind ever since I heard the news and I am so sadden by the life of this wonderful soul and I know he is wrapped in the arms of Gods love. My condolences to his family and of course to all that knew him. RIP my friend.

“ I tried to add this to my other post, but I guess you can only do one or the other...

I never got to show Howard the picture of my youngest son when he graduated with his broken hand that he and Dr. Sachdev surgically repaired. Howard was the one who told me where to get orange wrap for his splint so he could graduate festively in the school colors of black and orange. He took such good care of me and my son and for that I will be forever grateful.

When I first met Howard, I remember thinking what a sharp dress man. He has been my provider for a few years. During this time I loss my husband. I went to have surgery on my knee. While being prepped for surgery I started thinking of my husbands last moments as he pass during surgery. Howard seen I was upset. He was so kind to me. He came over , held my hand as explained why I was crying. He said he would take care of me. He had me knocked out by the time the operating doors opened. He was a sincere kind person who be missed. Howard has been with Dr Sachdev for years. He took care of me and my family for years. You could not find a kinder and gentle person Howard was always so caring and always listened to your concerns. Howard will be surely missed my his staff and his patients..When I heard about Howard's passing I was really upset and when I returned home I could not stop crying.

Rita Kappauf - July 20, 2021 at 05:55 AM

“ I knew Howard from going to Dr. Sachdev’s office for my knees. He was such a sweet, gentle man. So when my son gave himself a boxers break, of course only a few weeks before graduation, I called the office and got him in right away. Howard was so nice to him and he and Dr. Sachdev did a wonderful job on his surgery to repair the break with a pin. I remember asking him if they had orange wrapping for the splint he had to wear as his cap and gown were going to be black and black and orange were the school colors. No such luck. Before we left that day, Howard came out and told us to try Tractor Supply. My son and I looked at him like he was nuts. What do orthopedics and a tractor supply store have in common?! He told us they had wraps there for horses legs and they might have orange. I stopped there after the appointment and they did have orange! My son got to make the best of a bad situation and graduate festively thanks to Howard. And when my son’s hand began rejecting the pin and was in massive pain, it was Howard who called back at 7AM (which I apologized for) and opened the office to remove the pin. It was easy to see he put others before himself, always. And when I tried to thank him for opening the office just for my son’s sake, I saw a humble man who didn’t need thanks. He was a man who was dedicated to helping others. I saw Howard about a week before for a knee appointment and when I went to get the results yesterday and was informed of his passing, I was in such a state of shock. I couldn’t fathom what I was just told and, when I finally came back to reality, I cried, right there in the office. It makes no sense that truly good, kindhearted people leave this earth too soon. I hope Howard is in a better place, looking down on us and seeing how many lives he’s touched even if he didn’t know he had done so. And because I never got to show him, I’m adding a family picture of my youngest son, proudly holding that diploma with his orange wrapped hand. He didn’t get to see the end result, but because of him and Dr. Sachdev, my son’s break has healed beautifully and I think his finger is straighter now than it ever was. Thank you, Howard, for the care you’ve given me and my son. My condolences to the family. Howard may be gone, but all the good he's done will remain in the hearts of all the lives he's touched. My family's thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ My condolences to Aunt Millie, Colleen, and Joyce. It broke my heart to hear the news today that Howie has beat us to heaven. I have so many childhood memories from our time together in Medellin, our trips taken, our weekends during missionary convention, and many others. Unfortunately, like often happens, I lost contact with Howie after our family moved west during middle school. He, and the Young family, would often come up in story time with family and friends as I recounted the many stories of my youth. I always appreciated his gracious and peaceful attitude and spirit. I know we will see him again and I deeply regret that it is moments such as these that sometimes force me remember how precious the people around us are and how valuable staying in touch can be. Loved watching the service online, thank you to whoever is responsible for making that happen. Great job John, I will see you again Howie.

Our hearts are "heavy" as yours are, and we are praying the God of all comfort will comfort your hearts and help you to keep going, as Howie would want you to. “ I had the great privilege of working with Howard (also affectionately known as "Howie") in Lima, Peru for a couple of years. He was always kind, thoughtful and so intuitive in his work with the street kids. He had a beautiful heart for the Lord & that was evident in his actions & conversations with his friends. It was such an honor to know "Howie" and I will always remember him. I'm so grateful that I'll see him again in Heaven. My family and I are praying for all of you. “ Howard and I first met 9 years ago when he approached me at the church we then attended about coming with our teams to medically serve in Haiti. Later we worked alongside one another and I got to know and become friends with a man who I saw give all of his heart to those he served. We all loved Howard, whether working together in Haiti, spending time together in the DR or just with other friends at get togethers at our homes. So humble, always kind, thinking of others before himself. We talked about God, his love for Jesus, his mom and sisters he adored, later Maria who he had fallen in love with and would travel to the ends of the earth for and ofcourse his trusted and best buddy Gabo. I thank God for placing Howard in our lives. He was one of a kind and a true gentleman and always fought for everyone, no matter who they were, to be treated fairly and with respect. Praying that Howard now be held in the arms of God and alongside his dad and I send my deepest condolences to Maria and his family...

“ My memories of Howard is the shy men with a slight crooked smile who loved his dog Gabo. He was a sweet men who cared so much about others and the love that he had for his mother and family. Howard was here in America, but his heart was always back home in Columbia. It was during our trip to Punta Cana for a wedding, that I got to know a little more about Howard. He loved to swim and he loved the beach. Gabo will never be the same without him. Howard and Gabo were inseparable, and they always dressed the same.
