“ Although we only got to see one another at the annual trip to ABC it was a fight to stop and visit at her raffle table. She did so much for our breed in health and research. She will be missed.

“ Death takes the body
God takes the soul, Our minds hold the memories. Our heart keeps the love.
Our faith let's us know we will meet again.
Billie you will live on in my heart through your acts of kindness. I thanked you in life and honor your memory in death. God speed my friend. Lori Findley
