“ My dearest brother Jeff, the oldest, of six, the only one of our siblings that served God and Country. Your commitment to our family over the years was one of love, support and caring. You took such good care of the younger siblings and also mom and dad before they passed away. Your tours of duty in the US Army was one of patriotism and honor.

Thank you for always being in our lives and providing a bit of guidance along the way. You will be missed greatly. You raised your children across two countries and several states. You also loved deeply and dreamed big. I enjoyed the times we were able to celebrate our parents and our family together when ever possible.

To Deanna, Stephen and Alyssa, your early days in joining the Kerr family were many and memorable. I hope you all can carry fond memories with you as you reflect on Jeff's love for you.

Tiffany, Kim and Joshua, our prayers and condolences to each of you. We've missed having you around, but know you too are suffering, love and God's peace be with you in your sorrow.
