

Joseph M. Pietrobon

March 24, 2021

Joseph M. Pietrobon, 72, of South Whitehall Twp., passed away March 24, 2021 at home, surrounded by his family. He was the devoted husband of Prudence (Porobenski) Pietrobon and dedicated father to Marty. Joseph was the parts manager at the former Union Garage in Bethlehem until retiring. Born in Allentown, he was the son of the late Gabriel E. Pietrobon, Jr. and the late Marie T. (Stein) Pietrobon. He was a graduate of Allentown Central Catholic High School and attended Villanova University and Muhlenberg College. Joe served in the U.S. Air Force Reserve and was honorably discharged. From childhood, Joe had a huge interest in trains and over many years accumulated an extensive library of train and trolley books. Joe also enjoyed collecting railroad china. He and Prudy enjoyed various train excursions in Colorado, Nevada, California, Alaska, Oregon, and New Zealand with that trip being the crown jewel. Joe enjoyed traveling and some of his most memorable trips were out West and hiking in the National Parks. Survivors: Wife, Son: Martin J. Pietrobon of Allentown, Brothers: Gregory G. Pietrobon and his wife Stacy of Coopersburg and Robert F. Pietrobon and his wife Patricia of Allentown and Nieces and Nephews.
