

Josephine D. Taglioli

May 27, 2020

Josephine D. Taglioli, 89, of South Whitehall Township, passed away from natural causes on May 27, 2020 in the Lehigh Valley Hospital, Salisbury Township. She was the loving wife of the late Emery Q. Taglioli, whom she married on November 21, 1953. Born in Summit Hill, she was the daughter of the late Anthony and Stella (Castagnera) DeCal. Josephine was a 1948 graduate of Allentown High School. Prior to her marriage, Josephine was a clerical worker at the former Bell Telephone, Allentown. Thereafter, she lived a full life as a wonderful mother and homemaker. Josephine was a devoted member of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church, Orefield. She was also a long-time member of the Allentown Italian Club and its ladies bowling league, as well as Lehigh Country Club and its ladies golf league. In addition to bowling and golf, she loved cooking, playing cards, and knitting – always to the backdrop of a familiar Frank Sinatra melody. Moments shared in “Nona’s” kitchen, enjoying and learning her secret Italian recipes, will forever be cherished by family.

Taglioli of Orefield; Daughters, Lisa Butz of Orefield and Gina wife of Mark Demchyk of Sinking Spring; Brother, Ronald DeCal and his wife JoAnn of Whitehall; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. She is predeceased by sister Lenora Hirschel.

“ Dear Quintes, Lisa, Tony and Gina,
My sincere condolences to all of the Taglioli family on the passing of your beloved Mother. I remember her as a kind, gentle and gracious person and have fond childhood memories growing up in our wonderful neighborhood and remembering all the card playing our parents did. If we were looking for our parents, we knew they were at one of our houses. I know I felt at peace when my parents were together again as I wish you to feel the same. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all. Love, Karen Bills Downey

“ Dear family of our beloved “ Jo “. I always enjoyed your beautiful mom’s visits to my store in Bethlehem. She was so gracious and quick to smile and laugh at my silly jokes. She would giggle every time I called “mom” and always seemed pleased to meet Lisa’s work family. She will be missed by everyone privileged to make her acquaintance. She will live on in our hearts and would want us to always think of her with love and laughter. cleo
