“ Many years since I last saw anyone in the family but I remember happy days at the cabin in Hickory Hills and later at the farm in Macungie. Sorry I have not kept up with the "family" but as we get older we seem to lose touch which is very sad. Uncle George and Aunt Clara will be there to greet her.

“ Dear Family of June,
My deepest condolences on the loss of June. She was always a very gracious woman. I liked talking to her. She loved her chocolate which I often gave her. She was extremely talented with those knitting needles. I will definitely be missing her at Fellowship. LV Hospice Volunteer & Member of St. John's UCC, Fullerton
