

June M. Strobel

November 21, 2023

June M. Strobel, 99, of Coplay, passed away on November 21, 2023 in Fellowship Manor, Whitehall. She was the wife of the late Raymond F. Strobel. June was a retail clerk at the former Children's Shop in Allentown and Alice Kay in Whitehall at the Lehigh Valley Mall. Prior to that, she was a supervisor at the former Freihofer's Bakery in Allentown. Born in Allentown, she was the daughter of the late Richard and Anna (Schaffer) Russell. She was a member of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, Allentown.

Survivors: Daughter: Jackie A. Wilson of Coplay, Son-In-Law: Paul Heydt, Jr. of Bethlehem, Grandchildren: Bradley Heydt and his wife Tanya, Paul Heydt III and Matthew Heydt and his wife Sarah and Great-Grandchildren: Andrew Heydt and Celia Heydt. She was preceded in death by a Daughter: Maria Heydt and a Son-In-Law: Steven Wilson.

Services are private, at the convenience of the family.

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

“ J S Burkholder Funeral Home Inc created a Webcast in memory of June M. Strobel

J S Burkholder Funeral Home Inc - November 25, 2023 at 09:45 AM

JS

“ *Dear Jackie and Family,
Dan and I offer our thoughts and prayers as you go through this difficult time. Please don't feel guilty if you feel a sense of relief at your Mom's passing. I always enjoyed seeing Aunt June when she came to the doctor's office where I worked. Find comfort knowing she is in Jesus' loving presence. My parents passed about 10 months apart over the past year, and I was amazed at how much relief I felt knowing they were in a better place and out of pain. The peace of Christ be with you.
Dan and Jan*

Jan Strobel - November 25, 2023 at 06:19 PM