

Kasey (Kay Ann Wells) Renowden

October 6, 2024

Kasey (Kay Ann Wells) Renowden, 78, passed away on 10/6/2024. She is survived by husband Joe, daughters Julianne and Deborah, and many much loved family and friends. Kasey was born in Hillsdale, Michigan, on November 30, 1945, to Cpl. Franz F. Wells US Army Air Corps and Claramae (Wolf) Wells. She grew up in northeastern Indiana and graduated from Fremont High School, Fremont, IN. She graduated from Olivet College in Olivet, Michigan with a BA in Elementary Education and taught grades 1 to 6.

She married Joseph D. Renowden, a sailor and engineering student at Tri State College in Angola, IN in 1968. They had two daughters, Julianne and Deborah. In 1970 the family moved to Miami, FL. Kasey continued teaching and worked at Girl Scouts of America, both as a troop leader and on the Council. When the family moved to Jupiter, FL, in 1987, Kasey worked in her church office at First United Methodist of Jupiter-Tequesta for many years. The family moved to Bethlehem, PA in 2017, where she attended Wesley Church and participated in the church prayer group and visitation as a Stephen Minister.

Kasey wrote a number of children's short stories. She was also known for the many thoughtful birthday, holiday, and special event cards sent to her extended family and friends throughout the United States. If you knew Kasey, you knew how it felt to be loved.

A celebration of life will be held at Wesley Church (610-865-5715) Bethlehem, PA on 10/27/24 at 12:30 PM.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the Special Olympics, your local no-kill animal shelter, or a charity of your choosing. Thank you from her heart.
