“ Grandma was a sweet, strong, family person with a fierce loyalty to family that she defended with all her might. We always felt safe in her home, and cared for. She had a mischievous side and a sense of humor that would come out at surprising times and really make you laugh. She will be dearly missed.

“ My beautiful mom came to live with us after dad passed over. I have been blessed to have her in my heart and home for many years. She was kind, practical, generous and always wanted to help and not hinder. I feel quite blessed to have been at my mother's side on the day she journeyed into the divine light. She was a caring and wonderful mom and I will miss her dearly. I love you mom, forever.
