“ The world has lost a lovely lady. Memories swirl through my mind of all the wonderful times we had together. We met in the first grade at St. Francis of Assisi school and were playmates (both only-children) throughout school and graduation from Parkland High. Baton twirling lessons, Fashion classes at Zollingers dept. store (photo on wall), we were always busy; and were bridesmaids in each other's weddings. My move from Allentown separated us, but we never lost contact. Interesting facts that she named her only child/daughter Joanna, and I had my only child/daughter on Lenore's birthday, 9/2. She wrote the most entertaining Christmas letters! She is the only friend in my life that was a "constant," She was a BFF! My condolences to Joanna and Joseph.
