“ I watched the video the outpouring of love was overwhelming even for me despite the fact I didn't know this fine young man. In one interesting interaction I asked him if he realized how many cousins he had. He indicated he was the best and no one could compare, I think now he was right. My condolences to all that knew and loved him.

“ *Nora and Family,
I am heartbroken by news of this tragic loss. I remember Liam from his elementary days at WSE and particularly recall the broad smile and eager greetings I received from him when he was a new student at HST and realized there was a familiar face in the building. I hope that you can find comfort in your memories of him and that your unending love can carry you through these difficult days.*

“ I will always remember that bright smile Liam had especially before saying something that either had us laughing our butts off or had us scratching our heads because the comment was very witty and beyond his years. I will always think of him exploring the woods at the soccer field picking up sticks with Xavier and just being a kid. We are all so blessed to know him and your family. Hugs to all.
