

Lois Jordan Pryor

November 28, 2023

Lois Jordan Pryor, 91, of Allentown, passed away peacefully on November 28, 2023. Born Lois Ann Jordan in Punxsutawney, PA, she was the daughter of the late Samuel X. and Jessie (Pratt) Jordan. Lois graduated from Punxsutawney High School and then attended Bethany College in West Virginia. At Bethany, she met her husband of 55 years, Dayton E. Pryor. She and Dayton moved to their Allentown home in 1963 where she lived until her death.

Survivors include daughter Ann P. Nichols of Washington, D.C., son Glenn J. Pryor of Clayton, GA and Grandsons J.J., Jesse and Grant. She was preceded in death by her husband Dayton and her son Craig.

Services are private at the convenience of the family.

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

SB

“ Although always part of the Jordan family, I met Lois (or Woodge) for the first time this past May when Dad and I visited. I'm so grateful for that afternoon with her and her kindness as I struggled with the recent loss of my mother. You are all in my heart and prayers.

Susan Jordan Bennett - December 13, 2023 at 12:22 PM