“Loretta was such a shining light in my life. I knew Loretta the entire time she lived at Valley Manor. She was so giving to those around her. She loved her jewelry and purses. One purse became her favorite which she received from Debbie Palmer. She kept that purse and shared with others her other purses so they could enjoy the pleasure of carrying a purse around. I miss talking to Loretta each day. I am so grateful I had the pleasure of knowing her. May she rest in peace.
