

Martha P. Cluin

September 18, 2023

Martha P. Cluin, 77, of Lower Macungie Township, passed away peacefully on September 18, 2023 in her home, after a well-fought battle with Metastatic Breast Cancer.

Born in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, she was the daughter of the late Napoleon and Florence (Bonin) Boudreau. She was a 1963 graduate of Sacred Heart Catholic High School in Pawtucket, RI and attended Bryant University in Smithfield, RI.

Before retiring, Martha served in many different community and social service positions. Some of her most memorable endeavors included her time with the Massachusetts Fuel Assistance Program (Gardner, MA), the Central Indiana Council on Aging (Carmel, IN), Community Services Employment Training (Visalia, CA), and the Exeter Union High School Guidance Department (Exeter, CA).

Martha was fortunate to live in 8 different states, and she amassed a group of dear friends with whom she kept in close contact over the years. She loved to travel, try new recipes, read a good book while sitting on a sunny beach, and share stories about her grandchildren. She volunteered her time with the refugee community, helping many families re-settle in the Lehigh Valley, as well as local cancer support charities.

Martha is survived by her two children, Andrea McKiernan and her husband John of Emmaus, PA, and Matt Cluin and his wife Donna Bella of Hutto, TX; grandchildren Kyle, Natalie, Lily, Hailey and Connor.

Services are private

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to the Lehigh Valley Topper Cancer Institute Fund and addressed to: Lehigh Valley Health Network, Office of Philanthropy, PO Box 1883 Allentown, PA 18105
