

Mary Jean Sidoti

January 23, 2021

Mary Jean Sidoti, 91, of Allentown, passed away January 23, 2021, in the Phoebe Home, Allentown. She was the loving wife of the late James J. “Jay Sands” Sidoti. Mary was a homemaker and an Avon sales representative. Born in Jim Thorpe, she was the daughter of the late John and Rose (O’Donnell) Hiller. Mary was a graduate of Easton High School. She was a member of St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Allentown.

Mary was known for her wonderful sense of humor, her gift of making people smile, and her devotion to her family. Her true passion was music. She loved singing at karaoke, performing in musical theatre, and watching her family perform. She was lovingly referred to as the “Mayor of Phoebe.”

Survivors: Daughters: Diane McMakin, wife of Joseph, Linda Makos, wife of Robert, Robin Seip, wife of James, and Jamie Valek, wife of Joseph. Son: John Sidoti, husband of Cory. Grandchildren: 13, Great-Grandchildren: 21, and many loving nieces and nephews.

Services will be private. There will be a celebration of life at a safer time. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Phoebe Home Allentown, in memory of Mary.

“ Mary was a fantastic lady- beautiful, talented and funny. She made me laugh until tears ran down my face - many times! She was a good friend to our mother. I know they are laughing and singing together in heaven! My deepest condolences to you all for this loss. You are all terrific people - and you come from two wonderful parents who were warm and loving and fun - what a legacy! Love, Mary Fiske Sweeney

“ Mary was one of the nicest people I met and got to know in the time I spent at Civic Little Theatre. When I was in Hello Dolly with her, and she played “Dolly”, she was one of the kindest, down to earth persons I had the pleasure of working with and lots of fun and laughs. God bless her, and the family she loved so much. Gary Reider
