“ Aunt Lena.. I'm so sorry that I lost track of you and Uncle John. It's sad that our family grew apart over the years, but I remember you fondly and I am comforted to know you met my mom Cecile Victoria when she passed in April 2019. I will see you sometime in the next 20 years or so, in the meantime I ask that you and the family continue to watch over and guide us through life. Blessings to you and all who loved you.

PS.. there was another baby. Actually there were 2 other babies that nobody knew about. I hope you will be pleased to know that one of those babies is still living. She is nearly 85 years old now, lives in Texas, looks just like a family member, and her name is Nancy. I found her on Ancestry last September and we are close now. You were right!
