

Philip Huntington Douglass

May 20, 2026

Philip Huntington Douglass, 78, formerly of Allentown, passed away on May 20, 2026, on hospice care at the home of his brother Alfred E. Douglas III of Allentown. Born in Allentown, he was the son of the late Alfred E. Douglass Jr. and the late Marion Gale Douglass.

Phil's early career was working in Washington, DC politics. After traveling extensively around the country, he chose to reside in beautiful Missoula, Montana.

Phil lived a life filled with curiosity, kindness, and deep love for people and passions that mattered to him. He had a keen interest in politics and was a strong admirer of Ronald Reagan and the principle of the Reagan era. He enjoyed discussing current events and public policy with all he met. He found joy in simple pleasures, a thoughtful game of chess, time spent outdoors and a good book in his hand. He was a thoughtful and caring man, and he will be deeply missed.

Philip has two daughters, Elizabeth Douglass and Margaret Wolf and a brother, Alfred E. Douglass III. Phil was preceded in death by his sister Gale Douglass and his parents.

Services are private, at the convenience of the family.

“ Cumin Phil, The last time I saw you was at your father's funeral -- my Uncle Red. I still remember you giving me a hard time because I had more hair than you did. We laughed about it then, and I'm smiling about it now.

We didn't get to spend much time together over the years, but you and the whole family have always been in my prayers daily. I wish life had given us more chances to sit, talk, and catch up the way cousins should.

God Speed Cuz. Rest in peace.
