

Robert R. Moyer

June 8, 2023

Robert R. Moyer, 78, of Lehighton, PA, formerly of East Macungie, PA., went home to the happy hunting grounds to be with the rest of his hunting buddies and family.

Born the son of Mathias Benjamin Moyer and Bessie Victoria (Conrad) Moyer he was predeceased by sisters Betty, Shirley, Lillian, and Florrie.

He is survived by his wife Karen of 55 years, daughters, Erica Woodland (Daniel) and Kimberly Cooper (John), grandchildren, Sarah Louise (Colton), Ryan Robert (Tina), Alexis Christine (Jonny) and Cameron John, great-grand baby, Maverick Lee, his loving sister, Dorothy, and nieces and nephews. Born into a PA German (Dutch) family, he not only talked the language, but taught many customs and ways.

An avid hunter and fisherman, he mentored grandsons Ryan Robert, Cameron John and great nephew, Matty Keck.

The mountains, streams, lakes, sunrises, and long paths were his church.

In his younger years, he also was an excellent golfer, winning many trophy events.

He worked hard all his life but found the most pleasure working on the golf course and being able to be outside with nature.

He departs now, Finally at Peace.

“ As you reached for heavens in the stillness of the morning, our Lord called out your name, the gates slowly opened and welcomed you home at 5.29 am on June 8th 2023. Today, June 13th, we awoke to blue skies, a gentle breeze and said to you " We will see you again", not Goodbye or Farewell. We honored each and every one of your last requests. There was laughter and tears but most of all, LOVE all around us. Forgive me for having a sense of relief, my tears of sorrow will be shed when the time is right.

Rest easy on the wings of eternity Daddy, you are always in my prayers.

*Love,
Erica Dawn*
