“ A million moments to remember. One of our fondest as a family, that captures how hard Bob worked and picked up slack for the rest of us, was during our trip to Disney with the kids. We rented a 4 person bicycle cart and as we were going up a steep hill, he realized he was doing the bulk of the peddling. He told us to get peddling so we could make up the hill and then we came around a corner fast and it was steep downhill. Best ride we went on in the whole park and laughed so hard the whole ride. Bob always picked up the slack to make sure we all enjoyed the ride.
