

Ronald Bryan Stauffer

August 26, 2023

Ronald Bryan Stauffer, 90, of Bethlehem, formerly of Benner Road, Allentown, passed away on August 26, 2023 at home. He was the husband of Helen R. Kohler and the late Maureen Sullivan Stauffer. Ronald was the project manager and assistant to the construction manager at the former Bethlehem Steel Corporation until retiring in 1997. During his career, he worked in various capacities within the construction, law and sales departments. His earlier titles included contract coordinator, pricer, designer and field engineer. Born in Sellersville, he was the son of the late Rholand A. and Anna K. (Mickley) Stauffer. He graduated from Emmaus High School in 1950 and won a scholarship to Duke University, where he received his BS Degree in Civil Engineering in 1954. Upon graduation, he was recruited by Bethlehem Steel Corp. for their management training program. Soon after, he was drafted into the U.S. Army for two years. He was active in the Boy Scouts, becoming an Eagle Scout. Ron and Helen traveled extensively and very happily taught as visiting professors at the University of Eastern Africa over a ten-year period. While there they gained more family, the Ngendahimana family. One member of the Ngendahimana family passed on their love of Ronald to their son, naming him Ron. From his grandchildren: Pop Pop's love and support enriched our lives greatly, his guidance and the cherished memories he gifted us will forever live in our hearts! Ronald enjoyed tennis well into his 80's.

“ I will always remember Ronald Stauffer, fondly. Ron and Helen were my neighbours in Dairy Drive at University of Eastern Africa, Baraton. His understanding and love for his students was evident. I still miss the Saturday evenings when we would stay late playing scramble. May God comfort the whole family at this time of grief.

I'm sorry to hear about Mr. Ron Stauffer's passing. Dr. Helen Kohler and Mr. Stauffer's dedication to the University of Eastern Africa, Baraton's development was truly commendable. Their commitment to academic growth left a lasting impact, and we extend our condolences to Dr. Helen Kohler during this difficult time. May God Almighty grant her sufficient grace to overcome the untimely loss of her beloved husband.
