“ I know Ron from Enterprise Rent-a-Car where we both worked part-time as drivers.

We had a good relationship as Ron was once a police dispatcher & I was a former PA state trooper. We also had a mutual friend at the Wescosville Vol Fire Co.

Ron was a fine fellow who was intelligent, friendly, a good driver and we enjoyed many talks on our rides at work. Ron was kind, generous and liked to laugh. He took life with the same joy and appreciation that many of us had with staying busy and keeping up with meeting new people. We learned the rewards of such activity as we age. Ron took his religious faith seriously and was not hesitant to offer guidance to his fellow man while always respecting other's beliefs. He was a good work-friend and I will miss out staying in touch by email once he permanently retired. Looking forward to one day meeting you on the other side, good friend.
