“ Theresa was truly a woman with the heart of Jesus. She cared so deeply for others and poured out kindness on everyone. She had a special heart for the kids in her neighborhood on Greenleaf. I offer my deep sympathies and pray for the family’s comfort and peace. She is home now. 💜

“ Theresa, Jeff and I will miss your smile and your sweet demeanor. You always came and talk to us at church. I remember you from the neighborhood. I'm so glad you and your family were part of the neighborhood. We even worked together at SMS. I'm so glad I got to know you. We have nice memories of you. We will miss you till we meet again in heaven. To your family we are sorry for the loss of Theresa. May your memories give you peace and may God give you the comfort you need at this time.

“ Theresa Miller is one of the sweetest and kindest woman, I had the blessing to meet and share some christ fearing moments with for years now. Theresa loved God as she loved everybody she took time to achknowlege. With this kind sweet woman comes a very big family whom she loved and all whom she loved as she loved our Lord...each family member and extended blessings whom I am certain will continue to carry on her spirit here on earth. Yes..heaven has gained another sweet angel..rest in peace my friend! Thank you for your devout christian faith and for bring hope and love into my and my boys world. Give my momma a hug, my friend. Regards to the entire family for your loss.
