

Tracy Rene Davis Wilson

April 20, 2025

Sunrise: September 8, 1967 | Sunset: April 20, 2025

With profound sorrow and deep love, we celebrate the life of Tracy Rene Davis Wilson, affectionately known by many as Trac Duce Five, Nanny Girl, Aunt Pae Pae, Domer, Momma, and Momma Girl. Born on September 8, 1967, in Anderson, South Carolina, Tracy later moved to Allentown, PA, before settling in Lancaster, PA.

Tracy dedicated over 30 years of her life to caring for others as a devoted CNA. Her love for people shined not only through her work, but also in her role as a nurturing nanny, where her joyful spirit left lasting impressions on countless children and families.

Known for her bright smile and love of colorful outfits, Tracy carried herself with boldness, elegance, and strength. Even while facing illness, she remained full of light, laughter, and the same phenomenal personality that defined her life.

She was a proud and long-standing member of Narcotics Anonymous, recently celebrating 29 years clean—an inspiring milestone that reflected her unwavering determination and personal growth.

Tracy was preceded in death by her loving parents, Luellen “Jim” Davis and Rosa Lee “Troze” Davis, and her brothers Wade P. Davis, Clint Davis Sr., and Bradley J. Davis.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughters: Nakia L. Davis, Markeshia R. Davis, Deja R. Davis, and Alexis M. Davis; her grandchildren: Cam’Ren A. Williams, Jessica J. Jones, Nevaeh H. Robinson, Anthony T. Davis, Annabella R. Ferry, Joseph D. Cordero Jr., and Ilias D. Cordero; and great-grandchildren: Josiah A. Williams and NaRiyah R. Williams.

Tracy is also survived by her siblings: sisters Rozetta Walker, Barbara J. Davis, and Shelia D. Hutchinson; brothers Rochester Davis, Rod S. Davis, and Douglas G. Davis—as well as a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who loved her dearly.

A celebration of Tracy’s life will be held on Tuesday, April 29, 2025, with a viewing from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM at the J.S. Burkholder Funeral Home, 16th and Hamilton Sts. Allentown, followed by the funeral service from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM.

As Tracy would often remind her loved ones:

“You are my sunshine”

and “I just called to say I love you.”

Her warmth, wisdom, and love will live on in all of us.
