“ Ginny has always been a part of our family. Our daughter loved to come over and swim, help with flowers and the dog. We awaited very impatiently for baked goods every holiday. Made with love. It was always a busy time for her and her daughter Lisa over the holidays. The tradition always upheld till her passing. She is now hanging out with the “old man .” Probably both talking loudly, so the other person listens. Here is to Ginny, being happier with millions of gardens and puppies up there. You will be missed by many.
